

Be a part of the library legacy . . .

The Andrews-Dallas Township Public Library memorial brick terrace was dedicated in the spring of 2016 to lifelong Andrews resident Glenna Brown. The terrace commemorates people who have been influential in the lives of Andrews residents and is a lasting celebration of the Andrews community.

The final placement of memorial bricks will be early summer 2018. Take this opportunity to add your memories to the library's legacy.

Commemorative Brick Terrace

Become a lasting part of the library's legacy . . .

Bricks can be engraved with names and memories and will be placed on the terrace in front of the library between the historic building and the new expansion.
